1、

Language Focus

Vocabulary

I. Basic Practice

1.

1) Galileo believed that all nature is designed in accordance with mechanical laws.
2) A vacancy has occurred for a sales manager at our Paris office. If you're interested, please send us an application letter and your resume at once.
3) The nurse put a hand on mine and assured me with a benign smile, "Don't cry. Your mother is going to be fine."
4) Boy, I really need to get in condition. Ten years working behind a desk have given me quite a belly!
5) Plastics can be made hard as stone, strong as steel, transparent as glass, and light as wood.
6) Coat the shoes with polish, then rub hard with a soft cloth to give them a shine.
7) It was probably a spicy joke to them, but it wasn't funny to me at all.
8) Michael's praise for my wife opened my eyes and taught me to show gratitude for her day-to-day effort in oiling this machine which was our family, which I had hitherto neglected.
9) It's easy for you to love me now, but would you still love me if I were down and out?
10) Some scientists believe that human beings are born with an instinct for using their arms and legs to stay afloat, which, however, disappears within a few months after birth.
11) To get a visa, you're required to present proof that you've never committed any crime in your home country.
12) My heart cries out for you but you are just playing with me. You don't know how I have gone/fallen all to pieces (or: I'm all to pieces).
13) Upon reflection I realize Maria was the best person in charge of office management I have ever had because she was a great organizer of things.
14) Please turn right here. The road ahead is blocked on account of a serious traffic accident.
15) His research has helped gain insight into the disease and how it can be treated.

3、

I. Basic Practice

1.

1) The college ran into financial difficulties because of improper management of its funds.

2) The government will exert every effort to assist its residents in the flood areas.
3) My parents live in a modest little house in the rural area, and enjoy the tranquil life there.
4) Our job as educators is to make sure children understand responsible use of the technology and apply it to their learning.
5) I was about to give up. But now, with your encouragement, I think I'll keep fighting for my dream.
6) A spy satellite orbiting 400 km above Earth is supposedly capable of counting individual people in a crowd.
7) This website provides a fascinating vehicle for us to share information and ideas.
8) He is a mathematical genius and has won a scholarship to study at Cambridge.
9) International students are required to buy health insurance because of the high cost of medical care in the USA.
10) When I completed the project, I immediately went home and paid an overdue visit to my mother.
11) He quickly discarded the idea of going to the US to pursue graduate studies when he learned he couldn't possibly get a scholarship.
12) It hasn't rained for a long time, and the plants' roots have used up all the water in the upper layers of the soil.
13) Here are some useful tips to help first generation students to make it through college.
14) To my delight, all my students passed the Band 6 College English Test.
15) This guide shows students how and where to apply for low interest loans for college education.

4、

Language Focus

I. Basic Practice

1.

1) To buy a drink from the machine, first insert the correct coins, then select the drink you want and press the button.
2) The economy is just one of the several critical problems the country is faced with.
3) The dean of our department is doing his best to foster a sense of unity among all the students.
4) The world is like a mirror: Frown at it and it frowns at you; smile, and it smiles too.
5) Video from security camera footage overlooking the driveway where the victim was shot appeared to contradict McManus' initial statement.
6) A basic understanding of mathematics is needed to explain a wide variety of natural phenomena.

7) They are doing a research project to investigate the harmful effects of air pollution in the city.
8) As for Laura and me, the colour of our skin has never mattered, either in the workplace or on social occasions.
9) A large crowd of reporters gathered outside the building to await the decision of the court.
10) She is not considered an outstanding student. But on occasion she has surprised her parents with her excellent performance.
11) The World Trade Organization was established to promote trade among its member states.
12) We are here to discuss how to proceed with our investigation. What you are saying is not relevant.
13) For the experiment to be valid, it is essential to record all data accurately.
14) Hard work can often make up for a lack of intelligence.
15) To reduce our reliance on foreign technology, we must invest more in research and development.

5、

Language Focus

I. Basic Practice

1.

1) They are now in a position to govern the country in alliance with either the Free Democrats or the Green Party.
2) The government troops recaptured the city from the rebels at the cost of two thousand casualties.
3) A team of experts were assembled to study the environmental impact of the project.
4) The media campaign was designed to increase public awareness of food safety.
5) The aircraft had to undergo an endurance test of temperatures of minus 65 degrees Celsius and plus 120 degrees.
6) Firm leadership and decisive action are what people want to see in their leaders.
7) Not altogether to his surprise, Edna seemed to have feelings very similar to his own about the matter.
8) The men who were trapped in the cave faced a desperate struggle to stay alive.
9) The government forces engaged the terrorists in the northwestern part of the country.
10) Much to my surprise Mary said many harsh and unkind things about her former opponents.
11) Months of exploring in the Arctic took a heavy toll on his health.
12) My school was among the first to equip the classrooms with computers.

13) These tests were so poorly designed as to render the results meaningless.
14) The doctor said to the patient, “Medication can help shorten the course of the illness and lessen its severity.”
15) Is it the teacher’s job or is it the responsibility of the parents to instruct children in good manners, acceptable standards of behaviour and in telling the difference between right and wrong?

6、

Language Focus

Vocabulary

I. Basic Practice

1.

1) The area is so remote that helicopters had to be used to ferry the injured out to hospitals for treatment.
2) After living in Paris and London alternately for a decade, he settled permanently in New York in the mid-1970s.
3) This hair-raising thriller tells of a young mother’s persistent effort to uncover who kidnapped her daughter during a seemingly peaceful camping trip with the neighbors.
4) Nothing really worthwhile can be accomplished overnight or without a lot of effort on your part.
5) The airport was re-opened on 14 January following months of closure prompted by repeated air strikes.
6) The two-day forum will consider, amongst other issues, the further opening-up of the financial sector to foreign investment.
7) Farmers in the Netherlands benefit greatly from their flourishing business cultivating tulips, which they sell to all parts of the world.
8) Thousands of learner drivers across the country were unable to take their test yesterday as examiners went on strike over pay.
9) The annual World Economic Forum, held in Davos, attracts many business and political figures, along with academics and other leaders of society.
10) In the 1950s European currencies were not convertible and domestic trade was highly protected.
11) The committee said companies needed to improve their security practices to avoid compromising customers’ privacy further.
12) China overtook Japan as the world’s second-largest economy in 2010 and it has since remained in that position, second only to the United States.
13) Modest inflation encourages individuals and companies to invest and spend, because otherwise their money slowly loses value.
14) Experts have been giving grim predictions for the future of the company based on close analysis of its annual financial report.

15) Compared to the private sector, some state-run factories fared pretty badly in the crisis.